VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. Editors.

Thursday Evening, Dec. 13, 1866.

Southern Loyalists.

It is understood that there are about sixty of these hybrids, Southern Radicals, in Washington City, who have taken rooms and are making a regular set to with the Republican members of Congress, to break up the existing State governments and throw them back either in a territorial or provisional condition. Unfortunately the names of those Southern men, who are thus dishonoring themselves and who are seeking to ruin their own neighbors and their native States, have not been published. Their names ought to be known. A deeper shame and infamy await them, in the minds of all honorable men, than was ever affixed to the characters of any men before. Posterity will blush to own them as having ever lived in the Southern States. Their gains in this iniquitous and degrading course, will be profitless and only serve as thorns in their pillows at night, and as hideous ghosts to disturb their quiet down the decline of life. They will need no other punishment, if they succeed in their diabolical work, than the goadings of a disturbed and guilty conscience, when they witness the results of their efforts. Poor creatures, we pity them!—The true and tried men of the State everywhere will shun them. The touch of these men will be polluting.

Who are they, who belong to this clique, from North Carolina? We have been loth to believe that men elected to the North Carolina Legislature, would so far forget their obligations to their constituency, their oaths to support the Constitution of North Carolina, would leave their proper work here, to join themselves to such a clique at Washington. We do not know, but we learn that Messrs. Logan and Jenkins of Gaston of the House and Mr. Harris of Rutherford of the Senate left here, leaving the impression that they had gone home on business, and yet it is said, that they have been to Washington to engage in this marplot, with Messrs. Holden, Pool and Taylor. Can it be so?

We learn that Mr. Harris, of Rutherford admits that he has been there, and that he saw the platform and that they are determined to break up the government of the State and throw us back into a territorial condition. Petitions are to be gotten up to be signed by the Red Strings or Southern Loyalists urging it upon Congress. Now we do not believe that the scheme can be carried out. Violent as some of the Radicals are, we cannot yet believe, that they intend to adopt a plan for which they have not a shadow of constitutional warrant. The Congress will never bring itself in direct conflict with both the Executive and Judicial departments of the government, unless they first ascertain that the Supreme Court has surrendered its independence.

The Howard Amendment.

The Senate to-day immortalized itself in its action upon the Constitutional amendment.—The report came up as the order of the day. It was discussed briefly. The report was adopted with only two dissentients, Messrs. Richardson, of Moore, and Harris, of Rutherford! The resolution rejecting the proposition to adopt the amendment, was adopted with but one dissentient, Mr. Harris, of Rutherford! Mr. Harris thus takes his position on the roll with those who would enslave his people and tarnish the fair fame of his native State. The House had not voted when this was penned.

P. S.—The House, it will be seen, voted 15 against the report, and only 10 against the resolution of the Committee. Well done for both Houses.

Telegraphic—Mr. Stevens' Bill.

We refer the reader to the telegraphic account of the bill offered to-day in the lower House of Congress, to admit North Carolina as a territory of the U. States. It will be seen that the bill ignores altogether the idea that North Carolina has had any political existence whatever, since she passed the ordinance of secession—proposes to treat her now as a territory, &c. The hands of Mr. Holden and his compeers in this State, can be clearly seen in the bill Our readers must not be alarmed. Having passed through so much, scarcely anything can hurt us much worse than what we have borne already. We rely upon the sober sense of the Senate and of the President and the Supreme Court. If Mr. Stevens' bill be not a legal fallacy, wholly unconstitutional, then the holders of North Carolina bonds are forever barred in law, if the bill passes. But the bill has not passed and we doubt if it can be passed.

COMPLAINTS.—We deeply regret that our subscribers on the Western route do not get the Sentinel regularly. Some complain they do not get it at all. There is no good reason for the latter complaint. Since the Legislature has been in session, we have found it impossible, on several occasions, to get up the legislative proceedings in time to send our paper by the Western mail, but it is invariably deposited in the post office to go out the next day. Generally, we have sent the daily regularly, but not always recently, because it was simply impossible always to get our paper out in time, by a half hour, to be sent by the Western mail at ½ after 6 o'clock, P. M. But if subscribers fail to get our papers at all, it is not our fault. They are certainly mailed to all our subscribers, but in a few instances we have failed to get them in the Western mail in time.

We are indebted to our friend Dr. McGourgan, the Commonner from Columbus, for a bottle of choice wine, made from the Flowers grape in Columbus County. A friend whom we take to be a judge, pronounces it to be a capital article. Wine is becoming quite an article of merchandise in Columbus, and our whole Eastern Counties are capable of producing it in inconceivable quantities.

THE HOWARD AMENDMENT.

The hour for the special order having arrived, the report from the Joint Select committee on the Howard Amendment was taken up.

Mr. Leach addressed the House in favor of the report.

Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, moved to amend the resolution by striking out the word "not," upon this amendment.

Mr. Covington called for the ayes and nays, and the amendment was lost by a vote of nays 43, aye 1, Mr. Harris alone voting for his amendment. The question arising on the adoption of the resolution, on motion of Mr. Wiggins, the ayes and nays were called, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Avery, Battle, Barnes, Berry, Brown, Clark, Covington, Cowles, Cunningham, Edwards, Etheridge, Ferebee, Gash, Hall, Hand, Harris, of Franklin, Hill, Johnston, Jones, Kelly, Koonce, Leach, Love, Lloyd, Marshall, McCorkle, McLean, McRae, Moore, Paschal, Perkins, Respass, Richardson, Robins, Snead, Speed, Spencer, Thompson, Thornton, Wiggins, Willey, Williams and Wilson—44.

NAYS.—Mr. Harris, of Rutherford—1.

The question then being put on the adoption of the report, on motion of Mr Leach, the ayes and nays were called, and the report was adopted as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Avery, Battle, Barnes, Berry, Brown, Clark, Covington, Cowles, Cunningham, Edwards, Etheridge, Ferebee, Gash, Hall, Hand, Harris, of Franklin, Hill, Johnston, Jones, Kelly, Koonce, Leach, Love, Lloyd, Marshall, McCorkle, McLean, McRae, Moore, Paschal, Perkins, Respass, Robins, Speed, Spencer, Thompson, Thornton, Wiggins, Willey, Williams and Wilson—42.

NAYS.—Messrs. Harris, of Rutherford and Richardson.

On motion of Mr. Clark a message was sent to the House transmitting the resolution and report with a proposition to print 10 copies for each member. Concurred in.

A message was received from the House transmitting a report of the commissioners of the sinking fund with a proposition to print.—Concurred in.

A message was received from the House transmitting a correspondence between the Governor and the military with a proposition to print, also recommending the propriety of sending Commissioners to Washington to investigate the same, provided the Governor heads the commission, with the privilege of sending his commissioners. Concurred in.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill granting a homestead to the citizens of this State was taken up, various amendments were proposed and adopted, but before final action on the bill,

On motion of Mr. Cowles, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Thursday, Dec. 13.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Sundry reports were made from Standing Committees which will be noticed in detail hereafter.

Mr. Harper presented the report of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund which was sent to the Senate with a proposition to print.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Lutterloh; a resolution in favor of E. P. Tabb & Co., of Norfolk, Va.

By Mr. Boyd, a resolution in favor W. J. Murray, Sheriff of Alamance.

By Mr. Harper; a resolution to postpone the valuation of the lands of the State.

Mr. Harper moved a suspension of the rules that the resolution might have its second reading.

Mr. Harper thought that a valuation of the lands in 1867, as required by law, would be inexpedient owing to the unsettled condition of the labor system, the fears of confiscation entertained in some sections, etc.

The valuation of 1860 was generally deemed a fair one, and if a re-valuation is had there would doubtless be a great reduction in the assessed value of lands, which would necessitate heavier taxation.

Mr. Hodnett hoped the resolution would not pass. Its passage would be unjust to the tobacco raising counties of the State. Lands in those counties were assessed by the last valuation at three or four times their real value owing to the high prices of tobacco.

Mr. Latham of Washington, opposed the resolution, and adverted to the diminished value of lands in the Eastern part of the State, owing to the destruction, of fences, buildings, &c. during the war as reasons why the re-assessment should take place.

Mr. Cowan, thought the resolution a good one. A certain amount of Revenue must be raised in any event, and it was useless to incur the expense of a re-assessment.

Mr. Patton favored the resolution for like reasons.

The rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings.

BILLS.

By Mr. Kelsey; a bill to amend the charter of the town of Marshall.

By Mr. Woodard, a bill to extend the corporate limits of the town of Wilson.

By Mr. Hodnett; a bill to prevent and punish unlawful hunting.

By Mr. Blythe; a bill to amend the charter of the Greenville and French Broad Railroad Company.

By Mr. Foard; a bill to amend the charter of the N. C. Joint Stock Publishing Company.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, the rules were suspended and the House proceeded to consider a resolution in favor of disabled soldiers. (Authorizing the payment of commutation, in lieu, of artificial legs, in cases where the artificial limbs cannot be effectively applied.)

Mr. Long thought the resolution should be amended so as to allow commutation in all cases at the option of the disabled soldiers.—Mr. L. stated that in a number of cases the artificial limbs furnished by the State were worse than useless—were mere botch-work and cited the instance of a soldier from Stanly, who had received an ill-fitting limb, the wood and iron work of which would do no credit to common artisans.

Messrs. Dargan and Durham opposed any amendment to allow commutation in all cases.

Mr. Long desired a postponement of the subject until to-morrow, that he might offer a substitute for the resolution pending.

Mr. Freeman thought the option should be left to the soldiers. Many of them engaged in farming could get along better without the artificial limbs than with them.

The resolution passed without amendment.

A message was received from the Senate announcing its concurrence in the report of the committee of conference on the subject of adjournment, to-wit: to adjourn on the 24th inst., and re-assemble on the 22d of January next.

On motion of Mr. Hodnett the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the Yanceyville and Milton Railroad Company was taken up.

The bill was amended and the bill passed its second and third readings.

A bill to abolish jury trials in the County Courts of Macon county, passed second and third readings under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Beasley, by leave, introduced a resolution instructing an inquiry by the committee on Propositions and Grievances as to the expediency of an act to prohibit the purchase of produce in the night time—making it an indictable offence. Referred.

A bill to incorporate the Rocky Mount Manufacturing Company. Passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

ON CALENDAR.

A Homestead bill, reported unfavorably from the Judiciary committee was laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Scott, on second reading.

A bill to change the rules of evidence in relation to mortgages, deeds of trust, &c., was laid on the table.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the report of the Joint committee on the Constitutional amendment, and a Senate resolution rejecting said amendment, asking the concurrence of the House.

Mr. Perry, of Crrteret, moved that the report and resolution be made the special order for the hour of noon to-morrow. Not agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Latham, of Craven, the rules were suspended and the report of the committee was read.

Mr. Jordan addressed the House in support of the Constitutional Amendment. No one replied.

On motion of Mr. Russ, the question was divided, and the vote was first taken upon the adoption of the Committee s report.

The report was adopted as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Allen, Autry, Baker, Barden, Beasley, Black, Boyd, Bowe, Bradsher, Bright, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Clements, Cowan, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Dargan, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Foard, Freeman, Galloway, Gambril, Garriss, Granberry, Guess, Harding, Harper, Henderson, Hodnett, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Hutchison, Jones, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Craven, Latham, of Washington, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lutterloh, May, Martin, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Morehead, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rogers, Russ, Scott, Shelton, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Turnbull, Umstead, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitley, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Williams, of Yancey, Womble, Woodard, York.—89.

NAYS.—Ashworth, Blair, Blythe, Garrett, Godwin, Hinnant, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins, of Granville, Jordan, Lyon, Rountree, Scoggin, Teague, Vestal, Wilson, of Forsyth.—15.

The resolution rejecting the Constitutional amendment was then adopted as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Autry, Baker, Beasley, Black, Boyd, Bowe, Bradsher, Bright, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Clements, Cowan, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Dargan, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Foard, Freeman, Galloway, Gambril, Garriss, Godwin, Granberry, Guess, Harding, Harper, Henderson, Hodnett, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Hutchison, Jenkins, of Granville, Jones, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Craven, Latham, of Washington, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lyon, Lutterloh, May, Martin, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rogers, Rountree, Russ, Scott, Shelton, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Turnbull, Umstead, Vestal, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitley, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Williams, of Yancey, Womble, Woodard, York, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lyon, Lutterloh, May, Martin, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rogers, Rountree, Russ, Scott, Shelton, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Turnbull, Umstead, Vestal, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitley, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Williams, of Yancey, Womble, Woodard, York, Blair, Blythe, Garrett, Hinnant, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jordan, Scoggin, Teague, Wilson, of Forsyth—10.

A message was received from His Excellency the Governor, transmitting correspondence with the Military authorities, in relation to the Military order suspending the infliction of corporal punishment by the courts of the State.

On motion of Mr. Cowan this correspondence was sent to the Senate, with the following resolution, in which the concurrence of that body was asked:

Resolved, That three Commissioners be sent to Washington City to inquire into the alleged necessity for the order, with a view to remove such necessity, if any actually exists; and if it be otherwise, to correct the misapprehensions with regard to the administration of justice in our State, which led to the supposed necessity; and His Excellency, the Governor, be requested to act as the head of the Commission, and to select his associate Commissioners.

The House concurred in a message from the Senate, proposing (at His Excellencey's instance) to change the time for the Governor's inauguration, and fixing the 22nd inst. as the day, instead of the 15th as heretofore determined.

The House then adjourned.

WILSON MALE AND FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL,

WILSON, N. C.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

The Principal has associated with him PROFESSOR AVERETT and LADY, of Halifax County, Virginia.

Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is a teacher of many years experience—was Professor of Mathematics in the Danville Female College until he resigned his position to take his place in the Confederate army. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARRINGTON.

All the teachers will reside in the College Buildings. Young ladies can obtain board with the Principal, and boys can secure board with private families in the town.

The session will comprise twenty weeks. The terms per session will be—

Primary Department,	$15 to $20
Higher English Branches,	25
Latin and Greek, each,	5
French and Dr wing, each,	13
Music and Painting, each,	25

Thursday Evening, Dec. 13, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Come One! Come All!!

The magnificent Fair, for the benefit of the Memorial Cause, will open at the Yarbrough House, on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, and continue through Saturday and Saturday night.

No effort has been spared to render it a splendid affair. There will be on exhibition substantial and fancy articles of every description. A table exclusively for the poor, and last, but by no means the least, a feast, the mere mention of which, is calculated to whet the most fastidious appetite.

Again the Ladies extend invitations to all.

CHARLOTTE.—The business of this place appears to be reviving. The Times says, "this city resembles a bee-hive." It also says, new buildings and other improvements are going up. Our cotemporary, however, gives the queer reason for its prosperity, that they have almost universally adopted the National currency.—Since the surrender we have had no other currency, but the draw-back to our prosperity is, we do not have enough of it.

Not any for Me, If You Please.

The Governor of North Carolina, in his message to the Legislature of that State, recommends action to promote the emigration of the the negroes to the Northern States. He very truly and sensibly expresses the opinion that the funds appropriated to the support of the Freedmen's Bureau would be much better applied to the travelling expenses of such negro families as might wish to remove to the Northern States. He proposes to compel none to go. But as the wages of labor are better in the North, where capital is superabundant, he thinks this destitute laboring class would be bettered by a removal. In many of the free States, he observes, there are public lands of great fertility, which the laws give to actual settlers at a moderate price. In one of those States a portion of the people have given an earnest of the principles they profess by electing two Africans as members of their State Legislature. Everything would seem to invite the emigration of the negro to the free States, but they are too poor to go with their families. As most of the Northern States seem desirous that the negroes should have the right of suffrage, his migration to the negro suffrage States would at once put an end to this exciting controversy. The negro could there be instructed into this new business of constructing a government, under the care and guardianship of those who profess the greatest interest in their being admitted to suffrage, and who have the fullest confidence that he will exercise it beneficently for the Commonwealth.—As Governor Worth well remarks, the negro is as yet no land owner in the South, and there are no ties which fasten families to the soil where they reside. Old homes are already left by most of them, and their removal to the impartial suffrage States would break no local and family ties. He urges the North Carolina Legislature to propose this plan of national reconciliation to the Congress of the United States. He thinks it clear that the Northern States will not object to it, because, as he truly says, "it will place the negroes, voluntarily emigrating to them, under their immediate guardianship, where they can look after their personal protection and mental and moral culture much more discreetly, than they can by a Freedmen's Bureau or any other machinery, while they remain here.

It would be supposed that the peculiar friends of the negro in the North would hail with joy this proposition from North Carolina. If the Northern people would meet this proposition we might afford to contribute very freely to the expense of a comfortable settlement of the negro population in the free States. If the free States people have half the respect and good will for the negro which they profess, while urging us to admit him to social and political equality, they would rejoice at this access of a large body of population to their own communities. They make immense efforts to get people from Europe; why not take some of these people at their own doors? If they are valuable citizens at the South, how would their worth be diminished by a short ride to the North? One, two or three days would be the extent of the trip by railroad, and human nature would suffer no great revolution in that short time. If the Northern people will only provide remunerative employment for them the whole question about the negro will be settled at once.

But, to our amazement, we see that the Radical press promptly takes ground against this wise and humane proposition of the Governor of North Carolina. The New York Tribune is decided and indignant in his negative of it. It even goes so far as to allege that it is a disguised satire and not a business proposal which Governor Worth propounds. It thinks the Governor cannot be so stupid as to believe for one moment that the Northern people would permit the negroes in America to remove to the free States, and to become the social and political equals of their people. Hence, Mr. Greeley regard Governor Worth as perpetrating an impudent joke. In order to give our readers a fair sight of this exhibition of feeling by the Negrophilists at the North, we copy elsewhere an extract from the Tribune.

That journal regards the proposal as indecent, and reminds the Governor that he and his people are subjugated slaves, and had better take care, as they will be seriously punished if they indulge in any such thoughts as those expressed in Governor Worth's message "to his Legislature."

The voluntary migration of the negroes from our society is an object of much importance.—To diffuse them over the whole Union would be far better than to confine them to one section.—That this will be the ultimate result of causes now in operation is by no means impossible.—Rich. Examiner.

MORE RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.—Joseph J. Roberson, Esq., and his able and efficient corps of workmen, who have just completed the Trent river bridge of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company, will commence operations on the bridge across the Neuse, near Kinstop, on Monday next. An entirely new structure will be erected at that point without any delay to the business of the road.

In addition to this, some eight other bridges will be re-built in rapid succession, and this, with the fine condition of the road-bed under Roadmaster W. P. Metts, and of the rolling stock, under Master-Machinist, E. J. Clayton, will render the Atlantic one of the best roads in the country.

A new platform is now in course of construction, for the Newbern depot, extending the full length of the space occupied by the passenger trains while at that place. This work was greatly needed. In short, thrift and good management now characterizes the entire work.—New. Com.

REMARKS OF MR. CUNNINGHAM, OF PERSON,

On the Homestead bill, in the Senate, on the 12th instant.

MR. SPEAKER:—I desire to express my approbation of the principle involved in the bill under consideration. I cannot say that I am in favor of all its details, or rather that they might not be improved, but I will vote for this measure, because I am cordially in favor of a homestead exemption.

A law like that proposed, can in no way interfere with past contracts, nor will it affect the rights of future creditors. The exemption homestead will not enter into consideration when the owner becomes liable for future obligations, and thus it seems to me that there can be no argument against such a measure, while many important considerations may be urged in its favor. Suppose, sir, this had always been the policy of our State, what an immense amount of sacrifice and suffering would it have prevented at this distressing crisis! There are now thousands of honest and industrious men in the State, who are deterred from efforts to better their condition and improve their farms from the fear that they will soon have their lands sold for less than half their value; and to-day, North Carolina is suffering a serious loss by this hesitation and uncertainty, when the necessities of the times demand the active energy and the hopeful enterprise of all.

Such financial disasters may happen again, and from various causes; but by the wise and beneficent forecast of such a measure as that before us, we may prevent the paralyzing results from which we are now so seriously suffering. This, sir, is a sufficient reason for the measure before us. But there are other considerations, equally important. By the exemption proposed, you offer a strong stimulus to improvement: you present inducements for a more careful system than that now everywhere prevailing, causing all prudent men to take stronger hold of the future, to lay better and stronger foundations, and to work for to-morrow as well as to-day. We will soon have more capital and labor spent on permanent improvements; we will have better houses, and wiser and more skilful systems of cultivation; and thus every one laboring to add to the value and beauty of his homestead. Our common homestead, the good old State of North Carolina, will, in a few years, present a more thrifty and cheerful aspect, and take a firmer hold on the affections of her children. A great bar will be presented to emigration, and any measure which seems likely to arrest this depleting process, is on this account alone, worthy of our most serious consideration.

These, sir, seem to me, obvious and substantial arguments, which cannot be answered, and which affect us in points now of the most vital moment; and to them might be added others which I do not propose to discuss, and at which I will barely glance.

Such action will indicate to the people a paternal regard on the part of the State, of peculiarly soothing efficiency, at such a time as this. It will invite immigration of the kind to be desired; it will revive the drooping energies of the people, and make them the more anxious to work out their present difficulties, as they will have assurance that their homes cannot again be involved in danger. It will elevate our State pride, increase our love of home, and throw out an anchor of hope to many a stout heart now struggling with the waves of adversity, while it will in all the future, furnish a safe and secure, and honorable asylum to that class which presents the strongest appeals to every christian statesman, the widows and orphans, who will have beloved homes, consecrated by tender memories, that will be castles indeed, and beyond the reach of the greedy creditor and the pitiless myrmidons of the law.

TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENTS.—The Lynchburg News in noticing the rumor that the Radicals will place the Southern States under Territorial governments, says:

In the first place: the Governor will be appointed by the President, and the appointee will not be a man after Sumner's heart. In the next place: we shall have a delegate in Congress, to be chosen by the people of this "Territory," who will have the right to speak on all the subjects discussed in Congress. In this respect, therefore, it is better to be a Territory than an excluded State. Then, again, we shall be rid of taxes, for "inhabitants" of Territories are not privileged to pay taxes for the support of Government as "citizens" of States—even though they be debarred all other privileges—are. And, further; the expense of governing a Territory is paid by the General Government.—This would be a convenient arrangement in the low state of our exchequer, and the saving thus occasioned would enable us to push forward our internal improvement schemes. Still another advantage might result. The tendency of emigration has for years been in the direction of the Territories, and the influx of population to the new Territory of Virginia, of Lincoln, Sumner, or whatever it might be—would probably much exceed that which the old State would otherwise attract. To sum up all, then, the appointment of executive and judicial officers by President Johnson; representation in Congress; relief from taxation; the privilege of electing the Legislature, as at present; to be "inhabitants" instead of citizens; to see immigration quickened and prosperity revived; to be relieved of the cost as well as trouble of governing ourselves; to feel that we belong to the United States as "property" which "a paternal Government" would care for, and that, being nothing more than "inhabitants" we shall not be expected to demean ourselves otherwise and shall be relieved of all the responsibilities which citizenship implies—is not so dreadful to contemplate. A worse thing might happen to us, for if Virginia were recognized as a State, "Judge" Underwood would be a Senator!—"Think of that master Brook; think of that!" Territorialize us and we get rid of this creature. "Think of that master Brook!" We are therefore willing to see the trial of this experiment; so drive on Mr. Sumner. We can't be worsted.

The Norfolk Virginian, of yesterday, records the death, on Monday, of Wm. Holt, fireman on the steamer Kelso, this making the fifth victim of the late disaster on the bay. The rest of the wounded were improving. C. W. Mixon and Dr. Osborn, both of North Carolina, are reported quite convalescent, and will be able to leave for home in a few days.

Probable Course of the President.

It is stated, on what authority we know not, that the President and his supporters in Congress, will probably adopt the stratagem of the Radicals, unless some flagrant violation of the Constitution should render Executive interference absolutely necessary. It is expected by this means to accomplish more for the good of the country than could possibly result from a course of open and active antagonism against the vastly superior power and advantages of the dominant party.—Petersburg Index.

The Indianapolis Journal says that it will tax the wisdom of Congress heavily to undo the mischief done by the President. But the wisdom of Congress can't bear a heavy tax. The tax-collector would have to make a return: no goods or chattels found.—Prentice.

The bill was postponed till to-morrow, and ordered to be printed, with all the pending amendments. After which the House adjourned.

In the Senate Mr. Davis followed Mr. Brown in opposition to the suffrage bill and pending amendments. After which Mr. Sprague in a written speech of considerable length, took ground in favor of universal suffrage. Several Senators made speeches on the pending amendments, including Doolittle, Buckalew and others. After which the vote was taken, which resulted in its rejection by a vote of 37 to 9.

Mr. Dixon offered an amendment to the bill to provide that no person who has not heretofore voted in this district shall be permitted to vote unless he shall be able, at the time of offering to vote, to read and write his own name, after debate, without action, on the amendment, the Senate adjourned.

A bill amendatory to the National currency act was reported in the House to-day. It provides for the organization of additional institutions, and to have the circulation more equitably distributed North and South.

Section fourth, the Judge administering the oath, if he suspects falsehood may require other evidence, false swearing declared to be perjury.

Section 5th provides for opening of polls by the United States Marshal, who shall appoint Judges of election.

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinsleys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the HOUSE tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands.

One tract containing about 457 acres, adjoining the first mentioned tract on the North, and that of Luke Lancaster on the South. This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. One tract known as the "Arcola Tract" situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.

The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it.
